

"Cavalcade Of America" Has Salute For 'Amphib' Trainees

"Cavalcade of America" sends hearty birthday greetings to the Amphibious Training Command on their third anniversary with its presentation of Philip Lewis' stirring radio play, "Sign Here, Please," at 7 p. m. Monday over WFAA.

Sherlock Holmes follows an intricate and sinister pattern of crime to a successful close when he solves the case of "The Secret of Stonehenge" during the broadcast of "The New Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," heard over WOR at 7:30 p. m. Monday.

A cross-section of Red Cross overseas workers, who serve with the armed forces in more than 18 war areas around the globe, will be highlighted in Vox Pop interviews with Parks Johnson and Warren Hull at 7 p. m. Monday, over WABC, at streamlined orientation center established by American Red Cross national headquarters in American university, Washington, D. C.

Battling boys in blue become recipients of the islands of free cigarettes when Bob Hawk broadcasts "Thanks to the Yanks," the popular quiz, over WABC at 6:30 p. m. Monday. The smokes go to the U. S. Naval hospital, Springfield, Mass., and the U. S. Naval hospital, San Leandro, Calif. This program also marks the debut of Hawk's new vocalist, vivacious Dolly Dawn. Music is batoned by Peter Van Steeden.