

America's Most Famous Pin-Up Girl Tells Story

The most famous pin-up girl in America celebrates her 59th birthday this year, and Cavalcade of America brings her story to radio listeners of WEFB Monday, in a radio play "Grandpa and the Statue" starring Charles Laughton. Who is this glamour gal? Why, the Statue of Liberty, of course.

Builders of beachbusters and Marine Corps Leathernecks who have fought the enemy in the amphibian tractors, plowing thru sea and surf onto invasion beaches, will be interviewed by Parks Johnson and Warren Hull on Vox Pop Monday at 7 p. m. over WABC from Borg-Warner's Ingersoll Steel and Disk Division war plant, in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Dolly Dawn, singing star of the Bob Hawk comedy quiz, "Thanks to the Yanks," offers the new favorite, "Candy," Monday at 6:30 p. m., over Station WABC. Hawk brings jokes and smokes for the Army, in the quiz, sending thousands of free cigarets to men at U. S. Army hospitals at Richmond, Va., and Galesburg, Ill. Peter Van Steeden conducts the program's music.

"CLEAN LIFE LEAGUE" LECTURES SCHEDULED

C. E. Dowdell, head of the "Clean Life League" of Ohio will give an illustrated lecture on crime, liquor and marijuana at Gomer and Elida high schools on Tuesday.

He will be in Gomer at 9 a. m. and at Elida at 2 p. m. The meetings are being sponsored by the Elida and Gomer WCTU.

Tungsten is not found alone in its natural state but associated