

Orson Welles Plays Lead In Air Version Of 'Number One'

Orson Welles plays the role of "Number One" in the "This Is My Best" version of the John Doe Past best seller, on Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., over Station WABC. "Number One" is the nickname of a powerful hungry politician who stopped at nothing to gain his aims. In addition to his acting chores, Welles is host on the series.

Victor Moore, amiable veteran of the "screen and musical comedy" stage, has a tryst with terror behind the squeaking door, when he appears as Your Host Raymond's guest ghoul in "The Meek Die Slowly," the "Inner Sanctum" mystery chiller for Tuesday at 8 p. m., over WABC.

Charles Boyer lands "A Date With Judy" when he turns up as guest star on that comedy-drama series Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., over Station WEA. It's all a case of mistaken identity, tho, when he invites her to be his guest for the evening. Boyer, in town for a Red Cross benefit, is visited backstage by Judy, who wants an interview for her school paper.
