

Yanks In Hospitals To Get Cigaretts From Bob Hawk Show

Convalescents in Army hospitals get thousands of free cigarettes when Bob Hawk airs his "Thanks to the Yanks" quiz over CBS Monday at 6:30 p. m. Eastern time.

A noted criminal's confession to an unknown murder leads Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson on an intriguing search for the killer's victim when the "Case of the Notorious Canary Trainer" is broadcast on "The New Adventures of Sherlock Holmes" Monday at 7:00 p. m. over WOI.

Ronald Colman and Susan Hayward will receive the popular Petrified Forest on the Radio Theatre Monday at 8 p. m. over WABC. Mr. Colman will play the part of Alan Spivey, the bald-headed, philosophical young man who meets and falls in love with Gaby Maple, a minor actress. The story will play to Mrs. Hayward.

What happened in a year's time, are thinking about the making of the peace and how jobs in the East during of the post-war world will be told on Vox Pop Monday at 7 p. m. over WABC when Paris

Johnson and Warren Hull visit So. Martinsville, a typical American small town on the geographic line where the west begins.

Three high speed cameras have been developed to help engineers see the inside workings of their mechanisms. The main difference between the three is that they use different widths of film. The eight millimeter camera takes 8000 pictures a second, the 16 millimeter at 8400 pictures a second, and the 35 millimeter takes 2500 pictures a second.

WARNER BROS.

OHIO