

Mystery Author Lives On Steady Diet Of Trouble

One man's meat is usually another man's ration points, but "Mr. and Mrs. North" find that a mystery author lives on a steady diet of trouble. In "Poison Is Frisbie's Dish," Wednesday at 8 p. m. over Station WFAF, Frisbie, ace whodunit writer for Jerry North, the mystery publisher-detective, is accused of murder. When "Mr. and Mrs. North" try to save him by uncovering the real poisoner, they are arraigned as Frisbie's accomplices.

Also on the mystery menu is an exciting chase leading to the murderer. Alice Frost and Joseph Curtin co-star in the thriller, and John W. Tuxtor directs.

Kay Kyser takes his "College of Mutual Knowledge" troupe to the Torney General hospital at Palm Springs, Calif. for the broadcast Wednesday at 10 p. m. over Station WFAF. Georgia Carroll, Dolly Mitchell, Diane Pendleton, Michael Douglas and the others join Kay and the orchestra in this hour of music and comedy.

Gentleman Detective Ellery Queen investigates blackmail and murder in a movie studio on the broadcast of his "Adventure of the Key to the Mystery," Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. over WABC.
