

Ann Sheridan Reveals Her Secret Ambition In Program

Ann Sheridan, Hollywood's glamour girl de luxe, drops by to reveal her secret ambition on the Milton Berle "Let Yourself Go" fun session, Wednesday at 10:30 p. m., over Station WABC. Lilit' Martha Tilton is featured soloist, and Ray Bloch conducts the orchestra.

Two top notables of scene and radio, Ginny Simms and Jack Benny, entertain and chat with GIs at the Army Air Forces Convalescent Center at Pawling, N. Y., on the broadcast of "The Road Ahead" program, Wednesday at 9 p. m., over Station WJZ. Ginny will be at hand in person, but her co-star will be heard via telephone from San Francisco. Clifton Fadiman is master-of-ceremonies and moderator of the unique "town meeting" feature which highlights the post-war plans of our veterans. The series is presented thru the cooperation of the Army, Navy, the American Red Cross and American business firms.

A criminal is detected thru a speech defect in "Pam Learns to Talk," WEAF's "Mr. and Mrs. North" adventure for broadcast Wednesday at 8 p. m.

With 20,000 Marines voicing their approval, Eddie Cantor invites Marilyn Maxwell to be his guest when the "Eddie Cantor Show" is broadcast from the U. S. Marine Base at Camp Pendleton, Cal. Wednesday at 9 p. m. over WEAF.

WARNER BROS

OHIO

—LAST 2 DAYS—

VERONICA LAKE — SONNY TUFTS—EDDIE BRACKEN in
"BRING ON THE GIRLS" in Color

FRIDAY AT 1 P. M.

MARGARET O'BRIEN
in her grandest performance

JOSE ITURBI makes music
for heart-strings

JIMMY