

Army Training Is Helpful In Curbing Juvenile Evils

How the Army's training converts many a potential juvenile delinquent into a useful citizen will be dramatized on the Army Service Forces "Assignment Home," in its broadcast at 4:30 p. m. Saturday, over Station WABC.

Time and circumstances combine to mature the boys who go into the Army, so that by the time they are ready for discharge, they are men. In war surroundings, they often find that they and their friends and families have developed along different lines, and a gap has sprung up between them.

"No One Will Ever Know," a new love song, which is sure to become a popular favorite, is sung for the first time by Roy Acuff on the "Grand Ole Opry" show at 10:30 Saturday, over Station WEAF. His other solo for the evening is "Turn Your Radio On." Other musical highspots include "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny" and "Memories," harmonized by the Old Hickory Singers; "Southern Moon" a duet by Rachel and Oswald; "Fiddler's Dream," played by Tommy Magness. Mack McGarr, his mandolin and "Geofus," and "Sally Goodin," played by the Smoky Mountain Boys. The Duke of Paducah (Whitey Ford) jokes about a recent trip he took in his relic of a car.

"Faces for Sale" the inside story of how racketeers tried to defeat justice by the use of plastic surgery, is another exciting story in "The FBI in Peace and War" series, to be heard at 8:30 p. m. Saturday over Station WABC. How the G-men successfully combatted this sinister perversion of science forms a surprising climax to the crime drama which is based on Frederick L. Collins' noted book, "The FBI in Peace and War."

Reds Urge Nazi Business Plans

MOSCOW, May 26 — (AP) — The Red army command in Russian occupied Germany today re-established free trade and the profit system and encouraged peasants to sell or barter their surplus produce on the open market in a move to combat the serious threat of famine in the cities.

The new decrees, together with the establishment of a food ration in Berlin and Dresden greater than that the Germans had under Hitler in the last days of

Radio Guide