

Mayor Chief Will Carthy Air Show

will take over the Lone Star State by storm and Col. Homer Harrison, Jr., chief of the team in at 8 p. m. Sunday over WEAF. The last arriving Edgar Bergen and Don Ameche, will be in San Antonio, Tex.

A traffic judge and sentences his father to jail for a term only slightly shorter than "The Life of Riley," in William Bendix's starring comedy-drama, over Station WJZ at 10 p. m. Sunday. It's all Riley's fault, for he persuades Junior to enter a contest for a municipal office during Boy's Week. Junior wins the honor of acting as traffic judge for a week, and his father regrets his powers of persuasion when he is brought into court for jay-walking.

The Emerald Isle's gift to Hollywood, Pat O'Brien, drops by to chat about the blarney stone with the Andrews Sisters on their show at 4:30 p. m. Sunday, over Station WJZ. Several old song favorites from Erin are due to be featured, and Pat threatens to join the trio in harmony. The Riders of the Purple Sage and Vic Schoen's orchestra add to the music, and Gabby Hayes and Dewey "Alamo" Markham take care of the comedy.

Baritone Jerry Wayne plays host to Oscar Levant, noted pianist and wit, and Caroline Segrera, gifted Cuban soprano during the "Jerry Wayne Show" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Sunday over WJZ.
