

Ida Lupino Puts Her Mind On Dunninger 'Brainbuster'

Dynamic Ida Lupino, whose current film is "Pillow to Post," and Thomas J. Deegan, director of public information for American Airlines, are guest judges, along with a serviceman who will be chosen the eve of the broadcast, on the Dunninger show Friday at 10 p. m. over Station WEAJ. The notables will be on hand to supervise a famous Dunninger "Brainbuster." Between feats of mystification, music will be supplied by Songstress Marilyn Day and Mitchell Ayres' orchestra. Bill Slater is master of ceremonies.

Homer Brown's fickle heart ticks out trouble for himself and Henry Aldrich when both adolescents find themselves quarantined during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast over WABC Friday at 8 p. m.

Reluctant at first to be hypnotized, Nora's curiosity finally wins out, hurdling her and hubby Nick Charles knee deep in murder in "The Case of the Sinister Suggestion," this Friday's fast-moving episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man," over WABC at 8:30 p. m.

Returning for the first time this year to the prize-winning program he inaugurated 12 years ago, Alfred Wallenstein conducts the "Sinfonietta" broadcast over WOR Friday at 7:15 p. m. with Schubert's Second Symphony and the "Bunte" Suite of Ernst Toch as the featured works.

Changes Urged In Food Power

WASHINGTON, June 22—(AP)—Broadening a recommendation from Herbert Hoover, Representative Jenkins (R-Ohio) today proposed a price control amendment transferring all OPA powers over food to the agriculture department.

Jenkins read to the house yesterday a letter from Hoover in which the former president and World War I food administrator called for "an administrative revolution" to combat meat and fats shortages.

Referring to scarcities in cities, Hoover criticized conditions he said produced black markets and suggested concentrating authority under a system where no government subsidies would be needed.

Doughnuts were introduced into England from France in 1536.
