

'Woman In The Window' Aired With Originals Taking Leads

The Radio Theatre will close its current dramatic series with the presentation of the unusual murder-mystery, "The Woman In the Window," Monday at 9 p. m. over WABC. The original screen stars, Edward G. Robinson and Joan Bennett, will recreate their roles for the full-hour program. Lux Radio Theatre returns to the airwaves Monday, Aug. 27.

"Calling Radio Tokyo," a new Army Service Forces musical series, premieres over Station WJZ Monday at 10 p. m. Warrant Officer Edward Sadowsky conducts the 45-piece ASF orchestra in the program's music, which will be of the musical comedy and popular type. "Commercials" will be quotes from the Japanese, excerpts from their declaration of war, the Tanaka Plan and other Japanese documents and public statement. Thru the world-wide facilities of Armed Forces Radio Service, the program will be heard by troops overseas as well as in the United States, and will be beamed to Tokyo. Scripts will be written by S. Sgt. Jerry D. Lewis, and T. Sgt. Victor Sack will be musical coordinator.

Service men can expect service from the stars now that WJZ's "Blind Date" show at 9:30 p. m. is originating from Hollywood for six weeks, starting with the Monday broadcast. Already slated to act as date bait for a lucky GI on the first show is Jane Withers, the prettiest who grew up to be a glamour girl. She's set to accompany a winning service man to a top Hollywood night spot for a free evening of fun.
