

New Radio Series Will Open Saturday, Starring Hypnotist

Ralph Slater, hypnotist, will be heard in the first of his new and unique radio series entitled, "Ralph Slater, Hypnotist," beginning Saturday, July 21 (9 to 9:30 p. m. EWT) over WOR.

Slater, who has given demonstrations of his hypnotic powers before thousands at Carnegie Hall and at Army and Navy hospitals, will attempt, in this original half-hour program, to "remove the bogey from hypnosis."

In a program of varied musical mood and tempo, the "Chicago Theatre of the Air," summer series broadcast of Saturday (10 to 11 p. m., EWT) over WOR will feature Angelo Raffaelli, tenor; Ruth Slater, contralto and Penny Perry, soprano.

Rafaelli's highlight selection will be "Nina," Ruth Slater will offer "Home to Our Mountains" and Penny Perry will be heard in "Musetta's Waltz" from "La Boheme."

Jerry Livingston will appear as the songwriting guest of the week on "Tin Pan Alley of the Air," broadcast Saturday. The program can be heard locally over WFAF at 5:30 p. m.

Jerry is the music writing half of whatever song writing team he works in. He penned the notes for such hits as "Talk of the Town," "Darkness on the Delta," "Good Night Wherever You Are," "Champagne Waltz," "I Saw Stars," "I'm in a Dancing Mood," and many others including the smash hit novelty favorite, "Mairzy Doats." He has a current novelty tune making the rounds and gathering applause. It's "Fuzzy Wuzzy."
