

ee' Meeting Feature mentator's Broadcast

ree" meeting of President Truman, Churchill, will be the news feature of William L. Shirer's e commentator and distinguished author of ularly at 5:45 p. m. over WABC.

Corpse," says "Nick Carter, Master Detective," a to solve an unusual murder mystery, in the crime-drama broadcast over Station WOR Sunday at 5:30 p. m. Corpses are slightly better than a dime a dozen in this hair-raising adventure. Lon Clark stars as Carter, with Charlotte Manson as his assistant, Patsy. Jock McGregor directs.

Rita Hayworth will be the glamorous guest addition to the airshow, "Tommy Dorsey and Company," Sunday at 8:30 p. m. over WEA. Stuart Foster and "The Sentimentalists" are the vocal features of the half-hour program.

Yank, the Army newsmagazine, recently brought out that Miss Hayworth was the G. I.'s choice of the "most glamorous screen actress of 1944" In a poll conducted by the Army pictorial services, men in eight theatres of operations voted her their favorite.

William Frawley will be guest with Frances Langford on her Sunday airshow starring Spike Jones and his City Slickers, at 8 p. m. over WEA. The program, which travels the Purple Heart circuit to entertain servicemen, will originate at Dibble General hospital, San Francisco, Cal.

le

Newcast—nbc

F. I.—nbc

ndtable—nbc

mentary—cbs

—nbc

Downes—cbs

2 Hill—nbc

Symph.—cbs

e Army—nbc

Star—mbs

v—nbc

oa

chestra—nbc

Munsel—cbs

rown—mbs

mentary cbs

vice nbc

ng mbs

Comedy—nbc

ow—cbs

Variety—cbs

nbc

—nbc

Comedy—cbs

y Show—nbc

Series—cbs

Period—cbs