

Are Women Good Anglers?

Experts Try To Answer That

How can a man induce his wife to take her own fish off the hook? That question, which has puzzled many a sportsman, will be answered by Dave Newell and Jim Hurley, outdoor sports experts, on the "Fishing and Hunting Club of the Air" over Station WJZ, Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. With the help of Roland Winters, host, and two guest experts, they also will answer such questions as "How do newly created waters suddenly become alive with fish without being stocked?" and "Why is a shark afraid of a porpoise?" Tall tales and helpful tips also will be included in the program.

Pamela North drops in at the jeweler's to pick out a gift for Jerry to buy her, and comes home to a first-class jewel robbery and murder mystery when "Mr. and Mrs. North" air their weekly murder and mirth session over Station WEAJ Wednesday at 8 p. m. Pamela finds that Gonigle, her reformed crook friend, is suspected of the robbery because the jewels have been found in his possession. Things in mystery dramas are seldom as they seem and Pam and Jerry (Alice Frost and Joseph Curtin) eventually reach a different solution to the crime.

The "Detect and Collect" show plans to make a G-I a happy guy Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. over WABC. The soldier guest contestant will be chosen from the studio audience to play this guessing game that rewards by cash, laughs, and gifts.

Movie Actress Evelyn Keyes, now starring in "One Thousand and One Nights," will be guest armichhaft detective on Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Clue in C Major" Wednesday at 7:30

Radio Guide

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 8