

Oboler Play Offers Excursion Into Unusual In Radio Script

Another excursion into the unusual in radio drama is promised by Arch Oboler when he presents "History of a Mugg" on the "Arch Oboler's Plays" broadcast of Thursday at 10 p. m. over WOR.

A challenging case that starts in a nightclub and nearly ends in the murder of three people is "The Case of the Frightened Friend," which confronts "Stonewall" Scott in the "Mystery in the Air" broadcast, Thursday over Station WEFB at 10 p. m. Margo, distinguished actress of stage and screen, as Billie De Vilar, an honorably discharged WAC, plays one of her characteristically dramatic roles as the singer and dancer who finds herself entangled in a network of Jap agents, drug addicts and saboteurs. The other leading role, "Scott," is handled by Jackson Beck.

American railroads, doing an outstanding job in moving war materials and personnel between military establishments, production plants, and embarkation points in the United States, come in for a well-earned salute on the Army Service Forces "Weapons for Victory," in its broadcast over Station WABC, Thursday at 5 p. m.

Divergent views on the question, "What Does the British Election Mean to Us?" will be presented on "America's Town Meeting" by a quartet of speakers including Orson Welles, actor and radio and theatrical producer, and Manchester Boddy, editor and publisher of The Los Angeles Daily News, in the broadcast over Station WJZ Thursday at 8:30 p. m. The forum will originate in the River-

Radio Guide

THURSDAY, AUG. 9

(Lima Time)

P. M.