

Detective-Priest Brings Another Story To His Fans

Premised on the fact that every great crime is based on one un-mysterious fact, hidden by a great many seemingly mysterious incidents, the detective-priest, Father Brown, presents his latest story, "The Mystified Minds," on "The Adventures of Father Brown" Monday at 8:30 p. m. over WOR.

Marine bomber and fighter pilots, who helped wrest Pacific islands from the Japs, will be interviewed by Parks Johnson and Warren Hull on Vox Pop at El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Ana, Calif., Monday, 8 p. m. over WABC.

The right answer brings a big bundle of cigarets to lucky GIs on the Bob Hawk fun-for-all quiz, "Thanks to the Yanks," Monday at 7:30 p. m., over Station WABC. A new hit, "Kiss Goodnight," will be offered between questions by Dolly Dawn, the show's singing star. In addition to the smokes garnered for servicemen on the quiz, Hawk sends cigarets to the Army at La Guardia General hospital, New Orleans, La., and the Glennan General hospital, Okmulgee, Okla.
