

Film Stars Take To Airways In Drama Programs Tuesday

Come closer, folks, Marie MacDonald hies her lovely, charming, and the midway as the guest star on "County Fair." Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

George Brent, screen star, plays the leading role, when "The Doctor Fights" presents another story of heroic doctors at work in World War II, in the broadcast Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over Station WABC.

Judy goes job-hunting and her methods lead perilously close to slaughter of innocent bystanders when "A Date With Judy" broadcasts over Station WFAF Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. She visits an employment agency, giving a fictitious name, says left the last job because she couldn't get along with the boss . . . and then gives her father's name as the ex-boss. Word gets around, of course, and there is the customary weeping, wailing and gnashing of budge-work in the Foster household. Louise Erickson stars as Judy, with Dix Davis heard as her brother Randolph.

Altho Michael (the Falcon) Waring is delighted when a fortune teller predicts he will meet a beautiful woman, he is considerably less pleased when he returns home to find the b. w. waiting in his apartment—and quite dead, which is just what happens in "Murder Shows Its Hand," latest of the "Adventures of the Falcon," over WOR Tuesday at 8:30 p. m.

CHURCH TRUSTEES LODGE MEMORIAL HONORING 11

To honor the memory of 11 Linn women, the magazine Missions has been placed in the main Public library, the north and south branches and the Horace Mann Community library by the board of trustees of the Women's Missionary Society, of the Baptist church. Among those honored by the gift are Miss Lizzie Weaver, Mrs. Bingham Money, Mrs. W. E. Parmenter, Mrs. Cecil Stoner, Miss Clara Christ, Mrs. Claudia Wilson, Mrs. Ella Edman, Mrs. Nettie File, Mrs. G. M. Bowyer, Mrs. C. E. Lynch and Mrs. Lois Kauffman.