

Andrews Sisters To Sing Popular Melodies Sunday

The Andrews Sisters, who spent the summer entertaining GIs in Europe, return to the airwaves with a medley of their famous numbers Sunday at 4:30 p. m. over Station WJZ. Elements of the show, in addition to the thrilling trio, include the Riders of the Purple Sage, romantic Baritone Curt Massey and Vic Schoen's orchestra.

"Nick Carter—Master Detective" and his assistant, Patsy Bowen, find a postman's bag, full of letters, in a garbage heap, and turn postmen themselves in a search for clues to the reason for this strange state of affairs, in "The Case of the Vanishing Postman," in the crime drama broadcast over Station WOR, Sunday at 5:30 p. m.
