

Career Girls Retain s?' Air Debate Theme

girl or the war plant worker give up her job now coming home from war? That controversial topic Ilka Chase and Paul McGrath on "Ilka Chase Ob- m. Sunday over WOR. Always on the watch for Chase has made her own private survey on the go on working" problem.

"Orson Welles' Almanac" becomes a weekly radio feature with the debut of the young film and radio star as a speaker from his easy chair at 12:15 p. m. Sunday over WOR.

Eddie Cantor, who certainly should know all about controlling daughters, will try to help hapless Hanly Stafford search for his popular but precocious broadcasting brat when "The Baby Snooks Show" returns for the new fall season at 5:30 p. m. Sunday over WABC.

Lt. Charles Emory, a member of the Navy's underwater mine disposal team; Maj. Gen. W. E. R. Covell of the office of quartermaster general, and Mrs. J. T. Leggett, a mother from Mississippi who sends home-state earth to boys overseas, will be among Milo Boulton's guests on "We, The People," at 9:30 p. m. Sunday over WABC.

Phil Baker starts a new contract, which calls for him to continue asking the $64 question for the next five years in his "Take It or Leave It" broadcast at 9 p. m. Sunday over WABC.

Guide

PT. 16

Newscast—nbc

J. A. F. L.—nbc
Roundtable—nbc

Commentary—cbs
nbc

Olivia Downes—cbs
nbc

Max Hill—nbc
Symph.—cbs

ly—nbc
nbc
r—nbc
Show—nbc

Orchestra—nbc
r Brown—nbc Commentary—cbs
Service—nbc

ecting—nbc Show—cbs

ve
nbc
—nbc
rd—nbc