

Listener's Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:15 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker show. Guest: Mrs. M. W. Fichene-Thomas discussing work with wounded war veterans.
- 12:30 p. m.—WCFL—Gen. Omar Bradley.
- 2:30—W-G-N—Veterans of Foreign Wars. Speakers: Gen. Doolittle, Gen. Bradley.
- 9:15—WGNB—World of Tomorrow. Dr. John T. Rellafata discusses "Rockets."
- 9:30—WENR—Doctors Talk II Over. Speaker: Dr. Willis S. Knighton on "Modern Ophthalmology."
- 10:30 p. m.—W-G-N. WGNB, WBBM, WMAQ, WENR—President Truman speaking on behalf of Community and War Fund.
- 10:35—WBBM—Talk by Justin Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters.
- 11:30—W-G-N—World Series preview: Commissioner A. B. Chandler, Ford Frick, William Harridge.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 1:30 p. m.—WCFL—Treasury Center. Guest: Betty Garrett of "Loving Room Only" cast.
- 6:45 p. m.—W-G-N—Easy Aces, comedy serial.
- 7:30—W-G-N—Crime Files of Flamond William Everett. Patricia Dunlap in "The Comic Corpse."
- 8:00—WMAQ—Barry Wood show, with Cornelia Otis Skinner, Roland Young. Guest: Al Tatum.
- 8:30—W-G-N—Adventures of the Falcon: "Dames Are Deadly."
- 8:30—WBBM—Theater of Romance: Robert Walker in "Vivacious Lady."
- 9:00—WMAQ—Amos 'n' Andy return at a new hour and day.
- 9:00—WBBM—Inner Sanctum presents "Shadow of Death."
- 9:30—WBBM—This Is My Best: Joe E. Brown in Ring Lardner's "Hurry Kane."
- 9:30—WMAQ—Fibber McGee and Molly return after summer vacation.
- 10:00—WMAQ—Bop Hope, with Brenda and Cobina as guests.
- 11:30—WMAQ—Everything for the Boys, with Dick Haymes, Helen Forest.

MUSIC

- Noon—WAAF—Symphonic hour: Schumann's "Manfred Overture."
- 4:00 p. m.—WCFL—Music Lover's Matinee.
- 9:30—W-G-N, WGNB—Chicago Philharmonic orchestra, conducted by Henry Weber, presents Beethoven's Symphony No. 8 in F major and Stravinsky's "Firebird Suite."
- 9:30—WWZR—Composer's hour: Schumann program.
- 10:05—WIND—Symphonic hour: Beethoven's "Fidello" overture.
- 10:35—WMAQ—Hildegard, with Harry Sosnik's orchestra.