

Grid Hero Victim In Wednesday Air Mystery

Wednesday has become, during the past few years, the time when mystery stories hold sway on the air waves. Such is the case this Wednesday.

A football hero, facing the big game's most crucial moment, becomes an unsuspecting victim of winner-take-all gamblers in "The Case of the Foolproof Fix" on the "Mr. District Attorney" program at 9:30 p. m. over WEAF. After passing the ball brilliantly to carry his team into the lead, the grid-iron star suddenly goes to pieces under a mysterious attack of blurred vision.

The biography of a storm, from its origin to its end, with the reasons for its being, the damage it causes and the benefits it brings, will be presented on "The Human Adventure" in its broadcast at 10 p. m. Wednesday over WOR.

The Aunt Jenny familiar to millions of WABC daytime listeners will be the guest armchair detective for "The Adventure of Ellery Queen—Cupid," to be heard at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over WABC. The Queen story is tailored to Aunt Jenny's style, for Ellery has no crime to solve, but a problem in romance, as the title says.

Jerry North's decision to publish a backstage murder mystery book by Torchy La Femme, a show-girl writer, tosses the Norths into a baffling theatre death crime in "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North" at 8 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF. The Norths learn that the manuscript is an expose of genuine stage killing.

Frank Sinatra will conduct a musical quiz, burlesquing all of radio's popular quiz shows on "Songs by Frank Sinatra" at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WABC.

Movie Star Dane Clark gives odd-time Eddie Cantor some inside stuff on how to be a "handsome juvenile" when he appears as guest on the "Eddie Cantor Show" to be heard at 9 p. m. over WEAF.

Cotterman Assumes County School Job

KENTON, Oct. 3.—B. W. Cotterman, Alger, assumed his new post Monday as superintendent of the Hardin-co school system, succeeding Frank C. Ransdell who recently resigned to accept private employment.

Cotterman graduated from Ohio Northern in 1925, and received his master's degree at Columbia university. He has done graduate work at Ohio State. Besides his 13 years at Alger, Supt. Cotterman was at Ohio City for eight years, Dunkirk, two years, Harrod two years and in the rural schools in this county four years.

Jacob Burkholder has been elevated to the superintendency at Alger. He has been principal there. Floyd Huxley, teacher at Alger, succeeds Burkholder as principal.

TOUGH ON TURKEYS

ST HENRY, Oct. 3.—The driver of a truck load of turkeys, Ray Palmer colored, of Cleveland is being held in the county jail on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. He was driving a load of turkeys, valued at $3,000 on Route 118 south of St Henry when he lost control and turned the truck over on the highway. Turkeys went in all directions as the crates broke and a number of the birds were killed.

WARNER BROS.

OHIO