

Listener's Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

8:00—WENR—Forum, with Secretary of State Byrnes and Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach.

9:00—W-G-N—The Chicago Story, dramatic-musical series, with Robert Trendler and orchestra depicting Chicago's place in the nation.

9:00—WBBM—Dr. Vannevar Bush, speaking on "Science for World Service," touches on future of atomic bomb.

9:05—WIND—Victory Loan rally, with Gov. Gates of Indiana, Will Hays, Ann Sheridan, and Bill Mauldin.

10:05—WIND—Hockey: Blackhawks vs. Rangers, with Bob Elson.

10:15 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews William S. Street, who will discuss State at.

7:30 p. m.—W-G-N—Gen. Eisenhower speaks on problems of occupation in Germany.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

2:30 p. m.—W-G-N—Judith Andrews, Modern Homemaker, with Eloise Kummer.

6:30—WBBM—Adventures of Killery Queen, with Edward Everett Horton.

7:00—WMAQ—Mr. and Mrs. North: "Pam Discovers the Clue to the Recluse."

7:30—W-G-N—Fresh Up show, with Bert Wheeler, Ruth Davey, and Russ Case.

8:00—WMAQ—Eddie Cantor show, with Thelma Carpenter.

8:00—WBBM—Frank Sinatra show, Guest: Fred Allen.

8:15—W-G-N—Real Stories from Real Life.

8:30—WMAQ—Mr. District Attorney presents "Death a La Carte."

9:00—WMAQ—College of Musical Knowledge, with Kay Kyser, presented at Vaughan General hospital.

MUSIC

Noon—WAAF—Symphonic hour: Shostakovich's Symphony No. 5.

2:00 p. m.—W-G-N—Songs by Orland Franklin, singer and pianist.

4:00—WCFL—Music Lovers' Matinee: Von Suppe's "Peasants and Peasants" overture.

7:30—WMAQ—An Evening with Romberg.

8:00—WCFL—Chicago Symphony orchestra: Overture to "Egmont," Wagner's "Siegfried Idyll," and Borodin's "Polovetzian Dances."

8:30—W-G-N—Spotlight Bands, featuring Louis Armstrong's orchestra.

9:00—WGNB—Artist Recital, with Jeanette MacDonald.

9:30—W-G-N—The Northerners, with Kathryn Witwer, in a Halloween program.

9:30—WBBM—Andrews Sisters show, Guest: Jane Cowl.

10:00—WGNB—Symphony hour: Beethoven's "Emperor Concerto."

10:30—WIND—Symphonic hour: Dohnanyi's "Sulte Op. 19."