

Phony Tax Returns -- Basis For "D. A." Radio Show

A phony tax expert who defrauds trusting clients and attempts to outsmart a greedy, ambitious wife, is the law-breaker in "The Case of Death and Taxes" on the "Mr. District Attorney" program to be heard at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF.

Preying on troubles caused by intricate tax forms, the embezzler offers a cure-all for harrassed tax-payers that fills his own pocketbook when Mr. District Attorney steps into the case aided by Harrington and Miss Miller.

Victory Jory, a star of the Broadway theatre, movies and radio, will be the guest armchair detective on the broadcast of Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Message in Red" to be heard at 7:30 p. m. over station WABC.

The master detective matches his brilliant intuition against a ruthless killer, who commits a series of apparently unrelated murders of perfectly innocent women on the Queen mystery program which Victor Jory will attempt to solve before Ellery gives his solution.

When rival amateur detectives from Wednesday night radio programs on rival networks compete with each other on a murder case on a single show, the killer has absolutely no possibility of escape and there is sure to be a lot of excitement and fun.

Pamela and Jerry North are amazed when stalking a nightclub murderer to discover private detective Ellery Queen trailing them and the killer of their own comedy-mystery show, "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North," to be heard at 8 p. m. Wednesday over station WEAF.

"The Eddie Cantor Show" is scheduled for 9 p. m. Wednesday over station WEAF.

The Owen sub-machine gun was invented by a 27-year-old Australian private.
