

Gen. Lombard Will Be Heard As Guest Armchair Sleuth

Maj. Gen. Emmanuel E. Lombard, who served as liaison officer between De Gaulle and Gen. Eisenhower in the critical days of 1944, will be the guest armchair detective for Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Man With Two Faces," to be heard at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Gen. Lombard, who began his career in St. Cyr, the French military academy, will be faced with a problem that had its beginning on a battlefield in Queen's adventure of the two-faced man. In this Ellery Queen mystery yarn, a veteran returns from war with a new face. Another man arrives with the identical face and both claim to be the same man.

Combating a big city crime wave, "Mr. D. A." wages a tight battle of wits with a suave "gentleman" crook in "The Case of the Learned Loser" during the "Mr. District Attorney" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

When the educated thief takes "Mr. D. A." prisoner, only a masterly psychological trick forces the lawbreaker into a showdown duel of cunning vs. cleverness.

An innocent visit to an old wax works museum in Chinatown brings Pam and Jerry North face to face with another baffler in the "Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North," starring Alice Frost and Joseph Curtin, at 8 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

Jerry favors creeping out of the creepy atmosphere of the wax museum but wide-eyed Pam takes a fancy to the models of famous criminals and to the proprietor, Mr. Beers.

The United States was the world's largest prewar buyer of cacao.
