

"Mr. D. A." Probes For Clues On Broadcast Wednesday

When the socialite daughter of a wealthy family returns from the WAC with a rank and file GI husband, her disapproving father is murdered, opening the "Case of the Wrong Way to Die" on the "Mr. District Attorney" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

The girl's husband, a composer, is the logical suspect as "Mr. D. A." probes into the real reason for the killing. But when another motive for the horrible crime is discovered, the D. A., with the aid of special investigator Harrington, is able to obtain enough clues to solve the puzzling case and make the murderer pay for his crime.

Did you ever see Santa in petticoats? That's Ann Sothern as "Maisie" when she campaigns for the Christmas community fund in a fictitious town of Middletown on the comedy broadcast at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. Merry mishaps set in, and she ends by playing Santa herself.

Ray Noble, popular conductor and composer whose song hits include "Goodnight Sweetheart" and "The Very Thought Of You," receives the Green Room Award, the honorary plaque given to celebrities for their contributions to the entertainment world, on the Andrews Sisters' program, "Musical Showroom" at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. After accepting the award, Noble will play a medley of his top tunes.

The Andrews Sisters, assisted by Baritone Curt Massey, keep the rhythm coming to the accompaniment of Vic Schoen's orchestra
