

Wynn-Cronyn Are Stars On Mystery Show Thursday

"Double Entry," a comedy thriller about embezzlement and race horses, co-stars Keenan Wynn and Hume Cronyn of the films, on "Suspense" at 8 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

The tale concerns two bookkeepers who become conscience-stricken after embezzling $100,000 and decide to give themselves up to the police. Before they do this, they try to regain company funds by making a 100 to 1 bet on a race horse, but this only leads to further complications.

In the true Christmas spirit, neighbors Dinah Shore and George Burns and Gracie Allen get together to celebrate. Their gala full-hour consolidation, aired from 8 to 9 p. m. Thursday over NBC, will include Dinah's husband, George Montgomery, just returned to civies and movie hero roles after three years in the Army.

When good neighbors get together a lot of things can happen, and do, including Dinah's special arrangement of "White Christmas" and Gracie's Concerto for Index Finger accompanied by a 50-piece orchestra.

An old-fashioned Christmas party, given by Bob Burns, provides mirth and melody at 7:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC. The highlight of the fun comes when Bob tries to light up the Christmas tree just as Santa Claus drops by.

Frank Morgan, Lina Romay and Vera Vague hang up the holly wreaths in the Music Hall at 9 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Just in case Morgan is in any quandary as to what he might give his MH girl friends, Lina Romay and Vera Vague, for Christmas, he'll find they have a number of, gentle shopping hints for him. Morgan is already wearing a red necktie in an attempt to ward off as many as possible from under his Christmas tree.
