

Madge Evans, Stage Star, Slated For Romance Panel

Madge Evans, blonde and beautiful star of stage and screen, will become a regular member of the glamor girl panel which discusses romantic problems on "Leave It to the Girls," effective with the broadcast at 9 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Miss Evans is replacing Dorothy Kilgallen, busy Broadway columnist who will return to the show for occasional guest appearances.

The male guest on the program Saturday will be Bill Slater, noted sports announcer, making a return appearance after his successful debut of a month ago. Supporting Miss Evans on the career girls' team are Robin Chandler, Eloise McElhone and Florence Pritchett. Paula Stone is moderator.

Al Stillman, one of the country's outstanding songwriters, will appear as the featured guest on "Tin Pan Alley of the Air," broadcast coast-to-coast over NBC at 5:30 p. m. Saturday.

Stillman, has been Staff Lyricist of the Radio City Music hall for the past 12 years and his high-flying hit songs include "Juke Box Saturday Night," "The Breeze and I," "Tell Me That You Love Me Tonight," "Say Si Si," and the current favorite, "In the Middle of May."

Lionel Barrymore still is carrying on as the "Mayor of the Town" on the program of the same name heard at 8:30 p. m. Saturday over CBS. Barrymore, in his typical way of acting, brings forth some of the most amusing incidents the airwaves have ever seen.

William Bendix finds that life as a father isn't as easy as some folks may think on the "Life of Riley" program heard at 8 p. m. Saturday over NBC.

Turkish Newspaper Hits Isolationism

LONDON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—The Turkish newspaper Cumhuriyet was quoted by Radio Beirut as demanding today that Turkey join an alliance of Mediterranean states to head off "Russian expansion."

The broadcast said "this first
