

Eddie Cantor To Broadcast Show From Army Hospital

The "Eddie Cantor Show" will be broadcast at 9 p. m. Wednesday over NBC from Halloran General hospital on Staten Island in New York harbor when comedian Eddie Cantor takes his entire troupe out to the hospital to provide a full day's entertainment for the wounded veterans there.

Not only will the cast spend Wednesday entertaining in all the hospital wards but they will distribute gifts to each of the wounded servicemen. When the regular broadcast is staged direct from the hospital it will have an all-serviceman audience.

When all the veterans staying at a certain rooming house mysteriously die, one by one, a tragedy unfolds which almost baffles "Mr. D. A." during "The Case of Three Steps to Death" on the "Mr. District Attorney" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

A strange woman who resembles an old witch rents rooms to ex-GIs. Her rooming house, with its three front steps, becomes a den of death for the recent discharges, but then "Mr. D. A. with the aid of special investigator

Harrington and Miss Miller, cracks the case, and halts the maniacal criminal activities of the vicious vet slayer.

Washington, drama-packed center of world politics, provides the background of intrigue and murder for "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North" in "The Case of the House on Houston Street," to be heard at 8 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

Ann Sothorn, as "Maisie," sponsors a "Do A Good Deed Club" for teen-agers and maneuvers the mayor into contributing $25,000 toward its support, in the comedy-drama over CBS at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday.

BACKYARD LUCKIER

(ATROBE Pa—(IP)—Hunt-