

Mysteries, Comedies Share Radio Schedule on Friday

A couple of quizzes, a mystery story, a few comedy programs thrown in and what better listening pleasure could anyone want on a Friday night.

For the after-school listeners are a few of the serial stories as "Front Page Farrell" at 5:45 p. m. over NBC and "Sparrow and the Hawk" at the same time over CBS.

Falling intermittently are the news broadcasts at 6, 6:45 and 7:45 p. m. over NBC.

At 8 p. m. over NBC is the Paul Lavalle concert and "Henry Aldrich" and his family can be heard at the same time over CBS. Henry plunges into the classics and comes out dripping with knowledge when he is assigned to make a speech during the "Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast.

With girl-friend Kathleen Anderson as chairlady of Center-ville high's new Discussion club, it all behooves hapless Henry to reject an invitation to appear as the club's first speaker. After laborious research into Greek history, he succeeds only in swaying his listeners toward pal Homer's contention that Syracuse is the site of a baseball club.

Ed "Archie" Gardner comes to the airwaves at 8.30 p. m. Friday, again with his pals, Miss Duffy, Finnegan and Eddie Green, the waiter.

At 9 p. m. over NBC comes Art Linkletter with "People Are Funny" and if you don't think they're funny, just try listening to the program with a poker face.
