

Cantor Finds House Re-Done On Return Home Wednesday

On his return to Hollywood after an 11-week series of broadcasts from New York, Comedian Eddie Cantor finds that stay-at-home Larry von Zell has done some fancy "remodeling" on Eddie's Beverly Hills house, during the "Eddie Cantor Show" broadcast at 9 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

Eager Beaver von Zell has gnawed so deeply into Eddie's roost that even Bert (The Mad Russian) Gordon, accustomed as he is to blind alleys, has trouble finding his way around.

Piano-playing Eddy Duchin, one of radio's most accomplished band-leaders, is the latest celebrity to be honored by the Andrews sisters, who will present him with the Green Room award on their program, "Musical Showroom," at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

"Mr. D. A." uncovering an unusual racket, pits his cleverness against the deadly cunning of a torch singer who sells a night club to out-of-town businessmen in "The Case of the Last Drink on the House" during the "Mr. District Attorney" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday.

When a night club reverts to its original owner, after several bankruptcies, "Mr. D. A." becomes suspicious.

James L. Cox, distinguished young American inventor and holder of the National Assn. of Manufacturers' Pioneer award for his work on lighting, will come out of the laboratory to pit his scientific skill against the sleuthing powers of ace detective Ellery Queen in "The Adventure of the Lovely Racketeer," at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

You don't have to be crazy but it helps when you land in a psychopathic ward. Jerry North discovers this in "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North," at 8 p. m. Wednesday over NBC. An innocent evening in a night club, coupled with a dare from Pam North, turns into a mad nightmare for Mr. North in "The Norths and the Belle View."

Radio Guide