who's dealing aces from the bottom of the deck on the Dick Powell "Rogue's Gallery" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. over MBS. In the role of the hard-hitting, hard-headed "Private Eye," Powell brings "The Murder Habit," his latest venture in violence, before the microphone.

Amy Arnell sings "Let It Snow," thereby providing Budd Abbott and Lou Costello with material for a snowball fight, in the broadcast over NBC at 10 p. m. Thursday. During another breather between Abbott and Costello lunacies, Bob Matthews sings "I Can't Begin to Tell You."

Bob Burns faces an accusation of having a higher ham content than the Berkshire hogs, when Shirley Ross and Leo Gorcey heckle him in his comedy broadcast at 7:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Smooth singing and sweet talk hold sway when Frank Sinatra visits "Dinah Shore's Open House" at 8:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Dinah and "The Voice" blend in vocal twosomes, comparing their present-day singing style with the kind of music they made together a few years back when they were a couple of struggling unknowns.
