

Judy Goes Boogie - Woogie On Program Aired Tuesday

Life with the Fosters ranges all the way from genuine Boogie Woogie to fictional church choral music when "A date with Judy" broadcasts at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over NBC.

Judy, participating in a dance contest with her father as judge, seems well on her way toward winning first prize, a year's boogie woogie lessons, when her father, fearful of an invasion of boogie woogie into his home, suggests a counter-proposal. He finds himself maneuvered into a situation in which he has to produce the mythical church choir, which he had invented as a cover-up for a secret muscle-building course he has been taking.

Alan (Small Talk) Young, dusting off his dictionary for a verbal tussle with Ed "Archie" Gardner of "Duffy's Tavern" fame, welcomes the master of malapropisms to the Alan Young Show at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Ed, appearing as the second in a series of guest spots on the Young Show, succeeds in contaminating Alan's grammatical efforts, but finds himself in a nip-and-tuck battle to preserve his colloquialisms against the eloquent English of Alan's rival, the wealthy Hubert Updike.

The escape of a killer who has been convicted of first degree murder on the testimony of Mike (the Falcon) Waring, launches the debonair detective on another of the harrowing "Adventures of the Falcon" stories entitled "Murder on Parade" at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over MBS.

Ann Rutherford has been signed for the leading role in "Cast the First Stone," when it is presented on "This Is My Best" at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

As guest ghoul behind Your Host Paul McGrath's creaking door, Mercedes McCambridge daytime radio's "Big Sister," figures herself in the dark about a series of crimes supposedly perpetrated by herself in "Blood of Cain."
