

'Jane Eyre' Broadcast Due On Helen Hayes Program.

Helen Hayes recreates Charlotte Bronte's poignant story of "Jane Eyre" when it is presented on the radio theatre program at 7 p. m. Saturday over CBS.

As Jane Eyre, Miss Hayes is the young woman whose miserable childhood impells her to seek a life of her own and to forget the bitter memories of Lowood Charity school. Thru answering an ad she goes to desolate Thornfield Hall on the English moors to serve as the governess for the French ward of Edward Rochester, a strange and cynical man.

Pinky Tomlin will appear in person as featured guest song writer on "Tin Pan Alley of the Air" broadcast coast-to-coast over NBC at 5:45 p. m. Saturday.

Guy Lombardo, popular king of sweet music will trade his baton for a thinking cap to take his place as guest star for the inaugural broadcast of the new quiz show, "Twenty Questions" to be heard at 8 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Norman Corwin, ace radio drama writer, poet and director, and author of a best-seller, has accepted the challenge of the four nimble-witted glamor girls on "Leave It to the Girls" panel at 9 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

The strange story of a person in trouble with the law will be unfolded when Edwin J. Lukas interviews a woman convicted as a professional shoplifter on "I Was a Convict" at 7.45 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Dick Haymes and Helen Forrest are having words, but the words come with music as the two singers prove during the broadcast of "The Dick Haymes Show" at 8 p. m. Saturday over CBS.

French Teacher Still Missing

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 2 — (AP) — Police Chief A. E. Kimberling today said all efforts to locate Mrs. Ruth W. Stuckert, 36-year-old University of Louisville French teacher reported missing since Wednesday night, have failed.

An abandoned automobile and driver's license identified by Kimberling as Mrs. Stuckert's was found on the Ohio river municipal bridge Wednesday night, only a few hours after she was granted a divorce from Albert Stuckert, owner and operator of the Stuckert Equipment Co. of Louisville.

Altho Stuckert said he was convinced his wife did not jump into the river from the bridge, Kimberling said Coast Guardsmen had been dragging the river.
