

Life Story of Gen. E. Booth Told on 'Opportunity' Show

The life story of General Evangeline Booth, daughter of the founder of the Salvation Army, will be dramatized at 10:30 p. m. Sunday over MBS on the "Freedom of Opportunity program.

General Booth, now 80, is one of the world's outstanding personalities, and still is one of the world's most active women leaders. Altho retired, she still serves in an advisory capacity to The Salvation Army and shortly will embark on a lecture trip in the organization's behalf.

Charlie McCarthy entertains Ray Milland as guest on his program at 8 p. m. Sunday over NBC.

New York film critics have just recently voted Milland's performance in "The Lost Weekend," the best male acting of the year. His movie schedule is one of the busiest in Hollywood these days.

The grim fight of man against the insect world from Biblical times to the present day, will be dramatized under the title "Pests, the Battle that Never Ends," on "Exploring the Unknown," to be heard at 9 p. m. over MBS.

Snooks' baby brother, Robespierre, displays an occult talent for picking winners at the races on "The Baby Snooks Show" starring Fanny Brice and heard at 6:30 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

Nobody but Snooks can understand Robespierre, so Daddy and Uncle Louie enlist her services to act as a mediator.

Ann Sothern, famed for her portrayal of the not-too-smart blonde "Maisie," on radio and screen, will try to be considerably smarter than usual when she answers Phil Baker's $64 question at a guest contestant on "Take it or Leave it," at 10 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

SOLICITATION IS BANNED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2—(AP)—

The War department disclosed today it has told six colonels to quit soliciting funds from former prisoners of war to finance damage actions against Japan. The department said the colonels, all former prisoners, formed a "claims committee for former prisoners of war of Japan" while recuperating at Walter Reed hospital.

Radio Guide

SUNDAY, FEB. 3

(Lima Time)