

Cantor Gets Entangled In Used Cars Wednesday

Eddie Cantor turns over in his rush to make a quick turn-over when he takes advantage of the high prices offered for used cars and sells Ida's roadster on "The Eddie Cantor Show" at 9 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

The new owner, a beautiful blonde, embarrasses the banjo-eyed comedian no end by cruising around town in full view of neighbors who quickly come to the wrong conclusion. Eddie winds up wondering whether the gasoline age is a blessing, after all, and applies for a priority on a surrey with some fringe on top.

Cupid says, "Have a heart!" when Ann Sothern, as "Maisie" finds herself in hot water with her suitors, in the comedy show's pre-Valentine broadcast at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Belita, dancing-skating star, will display her detecting ability when she is the amateur guest sleuth on the "Ellery Queen Show" at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

The master detective will try his hand at solving a murder mystery that baffled the San Francisco police in 1907.

When a big-shot gunman is released from the pen, he attempts to revive old gangster methods and re-enact the famed St. Valentine's Day massacre in "The Case of the Old Fashioned Valentine" on the "Mr. District Attorney" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

A photographer who unselfishly has contributed his spare time for the past four years as a volunteer hospital orderly will be saluted as the "Big, Little American" at 5:15 p. m. Wednesday over MBS.

Radio Guide

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 13

P M

5:45 Front Page Farrell Serial—nbc
Sparrow And Hawk—cbw
Tom Mix mbs
6:00 News Report—nbc