

Garry Moore To Appear On Drama Program Tuesday

Garry Moore, whose porcupine haircut is a trademark, plays the starring role in the comedy "Sitting Pretty," when it is presented on "This Is My Best" at 9:30 P. M. Tuesday over CBS.

Moore, who devotes his Friday nights to Jimmy Durante and his mythical chums, Umbrigo and Mrs. Calabash, will be heard as a young clerk who wants to get rich quick, so that his girl friend will regard him as a better marriage prospect.

As guest ghoul behind Your Host Paul McGrath's creaking door, radio ace Kenneth Lynea plays a murderer who sets his own trap in "To the Ends of the Earth," an action packed "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be broadcast at 9 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

A con man kills a loan shark and dreading sworn revenge by the usurer's gangster brother, flees in disguise. He commits his fatal error when he is recognized by the rich young widow to whom he has proposed marriage.

Observance of Brotherhood Week will be marked over the MBS network with the broadcast of an original drama written for the occasion by the noted radio playwright and director, Airc Obler at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

Jeri Sullivan cuts capers with Bob Crosby and the Bobcats at 10 p. m. Saturday over CBS.

This is the second visit with Crosby for the singer who is now in Hollywood for her first film.

Her musical courtship turned out to be a draw during the last meeting but there'll be some changes made this time.
