

Gets Essay Published Weekly Air-Show Friday

More surprised than Henry Aldrich when an essay on Winton, ghost-written in Henry's name, appears on page of newspaper, during "The Aldrich Family" at 8 p. m.
S.

Quite sure whether Washington crossed the Delaware bar across it, but his troubles in writing a composition for his high school disappear miraculously as a result of a casual interview with a newspaper reporter.

When Henry gets lost in the process of retrieving his original manuscript, pal Homer is on hand, too, for a hayride back to town.

Dick Powell makes a menacing appearance on "The Ginny Simms Show" at 8 p. m. Friday over CBS.

The erstwhile crooner tries out his meanie manner on Ginny, but when they sing a couple of duets, the "tough guy" stuff turns out to be all a sham and Dick comes thru as the sweet guy he always was.

Duffy's Tavern is teeming with preparations to welcome tonsil-less Ed "Archie" Gardner back to the bistro. Reginald Gardiner as Sir Heathcliffe Batterswicke, takes over as master-of-ceremonies for the combination "Welcome Home, Archie" and Washington's birthday celebration to be heard at 9:30 p. m. Friday.
