

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:15 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Thomas Hart Benton, artist
10:15—WBBM—Winston Churchill discusses "Education" in a special broadcast from Miami.
8:45 p. m.—WGNB—The World of Tomorrow: Russell J. Tinkham of the Armour Research Foundation speaks on "The Wire Recorder."
9:15—W-G-N—Upton Close in a series of news commentaries.
11:00—W-G-N—Golden Gloves Tournament, with description by Harry Creighton and Dick Enroth.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 9:30 a. m.—W-G-N—The Toe Time, variety show, with John Boothby, Wally McManus, and Lucille Faye. [Premiere.]
2:30 p. m.—WCFB—Ladies, Be Seated, with Johnny Olsen as M. C.
7:00—WLS—Lynn and Abner entertain with some homespun humor.
7:30—W-G-N—Adventures of the Falcon: "B Is for Blood."
7:30—WBBM—Theater of Romance: Herbert Marshall and Robert Young in "The Enchanted Cottage."
7:30—WLS—"Dark Venture," a psychological drama.
8:00—WMAQ—Amos 'n' Andy, with George Jessel as a guest.
8:30—WBBM—This Is My Best: Walter Brennan and June Lockhart co-star in "Blueprint for Happiness."
8:30—WMAQ—Fibber McGee and Molly, with Bill Thompson.
9:00—WMAQ—Bob Hope, with Frances Langford and Jerry Colonna.
9:30—W-G-N—Crime Files of Flamond: "Case of the Pallid Person."
9:30—WMAQ—Red Skelton, with Verna Felton and GeGe Pearson.
10:30—WMAQ—Barry Fitzgerald as His Honor the Barber.

MUSIC

- 9:45 a. m.—W-G-N—Fun and Music, musical variety show. [Premiere.]
11:15—W-G-N—Morton Downey, with Jimmy Lytell's orchestra.
Noon—WAAF—Symphonic Hour: Schubert's Symphony No. 5 in B flat.
8:00 p. m.—WENR—Guy Lombardo's orchestra plays favorite tunes of celebrities.
8:30—W-G-N—Chicago Philharmonic, under the baton of Henry Weber, offers Smetana's "The Moldau," Strauss' "Rosenkayaller Suite," and Ljadoff's "The Enchanted Lake."
10:05—WIND—Symphonic Hour: Gershwin's Concerto in F.
11:30—WMAQ—Muscleana, with Jeanne MacKenna and Richard Paige.