

Gildy Prepares Townsfolk For Visit from Inspector

A visit by the State Water inspector sends the "Great Gildersleeve" into a watery groove in the comedy-drama broadcast at 6:30 p. m. Sunday over NBC. Gildy goes into a dither, trying to get things in order about the town, so that the inspector will see nothing calculated to inspire an unfavorable report.

Charlie McCarthy finds himself matched against Walter Slezak during his Sunday half-hour show at 8 p. m. over NBC.

One of Follywood's new top-ranking villains, Slezak is to be seen on the screen as a No. 1 trouble make: in "Cornered."

Walter Huston, currently appearing in the Broadway play, "Apple of His Eye," stars in the "Exploring the Unknown" dramatization "A Drink of Water" at 9 p. m. Sunday over MBS. The story deals with the effects of thirst on a group crossing a desert.

Fanny Brice as Baby Snooks, America's No. 1 problem child commemorates the Terrible Tot's

25th anniversary with a gala birthday party on "The Baby Snooks Show" at 6:30 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

Coy, insinuating and half-insulting, Baby Snooks is Fanny Brice's contribution to the long line of precocious brats to give comedy relief to literature and the theatre thru the years. Miss Brice first impersonated the loveable brat at a party 25 years ago, when she delivered the then-popular "Perils of Pauline."

Nick and Nora overhear a threatening conversation in the next phone booth, and lose no time in tracking down a murderer in "Case of the Helpful Hoodlum," at 7 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

Well-meaning as the Charleses always are, they start out to save a ride victim, and finish by matching wits with the biggest ring of killers they've met in many a day.
