

Eddie Cantor To Guest Star On Dinah Shore Broadcast

It's boy songs against girl songs when Dinah Shore meets Eddie Cantor in a musical match on the "Dinah Shore's Open House" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Dinah throws some harmony haymakers with such ditties as "I'm Just Wild about Harry," and many others.

Cary Grant, who was the first "Suspense" guest when the mystery series went under sponsorship several years ago, returns to radio's "theatre of thrills" to star in a unique chiller-diller at 8 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

Two current hits are the musical choices of Amy Arnell and Bob Matthews soloists on the "Abbott and Costello" comedy show at 10 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Bing Crosby brings Lina Romey, popular and frequent visitor to the Music hall, back at 9 p. m. Thursday over NBC. Eddy Duchin, on hand with his piano magic, John Scott Trotter, the Charioteers and the MH chorus complete the line-up for the musical half hour.

George Burns and Gracie Allen start a back-to-the-soil movement all their own during the show at 8 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Starting their whole trend of thought was a benefit they played at a home for old actors. It brought home to them the insecurity of the performer's life and so they want a little business on the side.

Back in Hollywood after a visit to New York and Bermuda, Bob Burns hears a report on conditions at his ranch from the ranch foreman and begins consideration of his campaign for reelection as mayor of Canoga Park at 7:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.
