

There's $2,790 Awaiting Correct Answer Saturday

If some lucky contestant knows the right answer on the "Break the Bank" program at 9:30 p. m. Saturday over MBS. Bert Parks, quizmaster will payout the $2,790 which now has accumulated. This is one of the biggest cash prizes in the history of radio.

The demands for encore that greeted Ted Malone's first appearance as the male guest on the roundtable of romance, "Leave It to the Girls" over MBS, will bear fruit when he returns. Malone will enter the ad lib battle of wits in defense of the men of America at 9 p. m. Saturday.

Those musical investigators, Dick Haymes and Helen Forrest delve into the housing shortage with a musicocomedy titled, "Home, Sweet Home," on the "Dick Haymes Show" at 8 p. m. Saturday over CBS.

It's the program's big production number and the Baritone and Blonde have, as their helpers, "Gordon Jenkins and his band" the "Four Hits and a Miss" and the chorus.

Judy Canova will have an interest in figures other than her own when she fills out her income tax return on the "Judy Canova Show" at 10 p. m. Saturday over NBC.

The light hearted opera by the German-Italian composer, Ermano Wolf-Ferrari, "The Secret of Suzanne," will be the presentation of the "Chicago Theatre of the Air" at 10 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

A weekly program, 15 minutes, will be christened into the American Broadcasting Co. family at 6:45 p. m. Saturday. The United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America will bring the story of the strike situation, the unions and the use of injunctions to light at this time.

Insects are usually near-sighted and depends on their sense of smell for protection.

The first iron furnace in the United States was built in Virginia