

Radio Editor Makes Debut On 'Ellery Queen' Broadcast

Betty Forsling, radio editor of Newsweek magazine, has reviewed hundreds of programs and interviewed the stars, but never has been on the air. She will make her first broadcast as guest detective for Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Clue of the Elephant" to be heard at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Pamela and Jerry North put their heads into the lion's mouth literally and figuratively on "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North" at 8 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

The Norths have "the luck of the Irish" when they pay an innocent visit to the zoo with Sergeant Mullins, his wife and eight children. But even at the zoo the Norths can't dodge trouble. Pam wants to see the lions fed after an exhausted Mullins takes his family home to prepare for a St. Patrick's Day celebration.

When the Andrews Sisters show the "Musical Showroom," takes to the air at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday, famous "stooge" Jerry Colonna will be on hand to recreate his "howling" success, "You're My Everything," and receive the Green Room award.

Dale Evans, another of those Texas girls who made good in the big time, turns up as guest with Bob Crosby on his new airtime show at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

The singing star is currently being seen with Roy Rogers in "Along the Navajo Trail."
