

Evelyn Novotna Sings 'Sari' On Opera Program Saturday

Evelyn Novotna, 20-year-old dramatic soprano, will be wearing Cinderella's glass slippers when she makes her coast to coast radio debut in the title role of "Sari," to be presented on the "Chicago Theatre of the Air" at 10 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Miss Novotna, who was signed to sing the role after auditioning before Henry Weber, musical director, is a native of Montgomery, Minn.

The zany radio comedian, Henry Morgan, whose first appearance on "Leave it to the Girls" established a high-water mark for hilarity, returns to the round-table of romance show at 9 p. m. Saturday over MBS, to sound the silver horn of male protest against feminine opinions on questions of love and romance.

The star of "Here's Morgan" show will be facing as pretty a panel of women as can be found behind the microphone. Paula Stone, as moderator, referees the verbal fencing match.

Something old and something new marks the Cleveland Orchestra programs to be broadcast at 6 p. m. Saturday over MBS. The orchestra will be back at its home stand in Severance hall in Cleveland for this broadcast, following a tour in the east and south.

Opera mixes with jazz, and Gordon Jenkins mixes with both as Dick Haymes and Helen Forrest offer a saga of melodrama and music in "Dixieland Band," their big production number at 8 p. m. Saturday over CBS on the "Dick Haymes Show."

Radio Guide

Agreement Ends