can Legion stadium fights, misses out on the first round this Friday because he's calling on Ginny. She makes him feel right about the whole thing when she lets him give her a lesson in the gentle art of self-defense.

June Haver, the other Dolly sister with the blonde tresses, does things to "Archie's" blood pressure when the shapesome movie star visits the "Duffy's Tavern" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Friday over NBC.

Miss Duffy takes advantage of the star's visit when she tries to persuade June to make a sequel to the "Dolly Sisters," which she thinks should be titled the "Duffy's Sisters." Miss Haver, of course, reclines the gracious offer.

Henry Aldrich and his pal Homer, lost in the woods, pick up a forest ranger's telephone and inadvertently set off a false fire alarm, during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 8 p. m. Friday over CBS.

With spring in the air, Henry's and Homer's dads delegate the boys to painting and lawn-clearing chores while they sneak off on a clandestine fishing expedition. An emergency arises—precipitated by the two bungling adolescents—and the lads are sent into the woods to retrieve the wayward fathers. Caught in a blinding storm, Henry and Homer resort to a forest ranger's home, with a result that the entire community is alerted to a forest fire.

Faces 5-Year Wait for Bride

CLEVELAND, Apr. 12—(INS) —A Cleveland ex-serviceman faced today a wait of perhaps five years before he can marry his beautiful Italian fiancée.

Edward P. Laudrich, 30, became engaged to Miss Giovanna Sachi, 24, of Montecatini, Italy, while he was with the 34th Division in Europe.

Miss Sachi cannot come to the United States except thru the immigration quota setup and the American consul in Florence has told her that she may have to wait five years for her turn.
