

Bob Hope To Be Guest on Bob Crosby's Radio Show

Bob Hope, looking for a later model Crosby, will make a special visit to look over Bing's kid brother, Bob, on his program at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

According to Hope, a man can't be sentimental about his old Crosbys. "The one I'm using now was a snappy little runabout once," Bob explains, "but it's beginning to squeak."

Joan Edwards, "Hit Parade" singing star, will set her wits to work as armchair detective for Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Rhubarb Solution," at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

This newest crime hunt takes Ellery to a tiny farm, where menacing letters written to a valorous rural girl upset the countryside calp.

David Rose will dress up the American folk song, "The Old Oaken Bucket," in a new special arrangement for his 45-piece orchestra and feature it as a novelty selection on "Holiday for Music" at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

A lovely wedding and a happily anticipated honeymoon are marred by the frantic actions of an ex-love of the groom, during "Strange Honeymoon," to be heard in three chapters on "Real Stories from Real Life" at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday over MBS.

The Chemical Warfare Service was made a regular branch of the Army in 1920.

RADIO GUIDE

WARNER BROS. OHIO