

Alan Young To Entertain C. Romero on Radio Show

Alan Young, pulling out of a romantic nose-dive, watches Cesar Romero's smooth take off as the popular screen actor trains his sights on lovely Betty Dittenfeffer during his visit to the Alan Young Show at 8 p. m. Friday over ABC.

Chugging along on one cylinder is wealthy Hubert Updike who finds that the high-paced amorous pursuits are slightly above his normal wooing speed.

Henry Aldrich takes the long road when his sister Mary asks him to escort a girl-friend visitor about town, during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 7 p. m. Friday over CBS.

The Aldrich adolescent bribes pal Homer to do the ushering, but has a change of heart when he learns that the girl in question is a "Miss Potato Festival" title winner. In his rush to meet the new heart throb at the station, Henry boards a train and finds himself shuttled from pillar to post. Homer, meanwhile, does the honors—to his great financial distress.

Ed "Archie" Gardner and all the members of the "Tavern" turn away from the light side of life this week to aid Fiorello H. LaGuardia, director general of UNRRA, in the drive against famine overseas, during the "Duffy's Tavern" broadcast at 7:30 p. m. Friday over NBC.

Charlie Callahan, Eddie Green and Sandra Gould portray their representative characters of "Clifton Finnegan," "The Waiter" and "Miss Duffy," but in doing so point out the dire need for relief on the famine fronts.

Tommy Riggs and "Betty Lou" are on hand to bid Ginny Simms farewell when she makes her last appearance this season on "The Ginny Simms Show" at 6:30 p. m. Friday over CBS.

PROTEST CPA PERMIT PROGRAM

Official Says Unessential Construction Is Being Approved

MANSFIELD, May 3—(UP)—William R. Allen, director of the veterans information center here, today charged that the Civilian Production Administration is "unbecomingly" the veterans' emergency housing program by permitting "unessential" construction.

Allen resigned yesterday his post as vice chairman of the Mansfield CPA advisory committee after criticizing the CPA for approving construction in Mansfield of a supermarket, a church and other business buildings. He said they were "unessential at this time."

He charged that the Mansfield CPA advisory group has never been asked by Cleveland CPA officials for advice on the essentiality of proposed construction here.

Allen said he sent a letter to Wilson Wyatt, national housing expediter, charging that the
