

Snooks To Be Bobby Soxer On Sunday Radio Program

Baby Snooks dons bobby sox and falls for crooner Bob Graham on "The Baby Snooks Show" broadcast at 5:30 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

Daddy invites Graham to the Higgins home, to convince Snooks that "The Thrill" is just an ordinary guy. Graham proves that he's a very extraordinary fellow, and before the evening is out even Mummy is swooning—and Daddy ends up fuming, as usual.

The Jack Benny program at 6 p. m. Sunday over NBC will be Benny's last broadcast from Hollywood for the season and comes on the eve of the Benny troupe's departure for Chicago and New York.

This broadcast will close his 11th Year in Hollywood, to which he moved his program from New York in 1935.

Charlie McCarthy hopes there is some truth to the old saying, "the bigger they are the harder they fall," when he tussles with Lauritz Melchior on his program at 7 p. m. Sunday. Edgar Bergen will be there, of course, with Mortimer Snerd, Ray Noble and Anita Gordon.

Charlie finds his troubles doubled when Melchior and Bergen get together. "The Melancholy Dane meets the Slap Happy Swede," frets McCarthy, "and we're off on an argument."

The Sunday broadcast of "The Adventures of the Thin Man" will be a happy reunion for cast and listeners alike when Les Damon returns to the role of detective Nick Charles after two years.
