

Mystery Stories Highlight Wednesday Radio Programs

Blackmail leads directly to murder when a poison-pen artist's victim takes drastic action during "The Case of the Death in the Mail Box" on Mr. District Attorney at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

In his ceaseless fight against crime, Mr. D. A., with special investigator Harrigan and secretary Miss Miller, proves again that victims of extortion or black mail should immediately enlist the aid of their local police.

A departure from composer-conductor David Rose's usual exotic compositions is "Our Waltz," his original romantic song in which he leads his orchestra on "Holiday for Music," at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Once part of a Rose motion picture score, the tune was processed as a formal number, has been sung by top vocalists and recorded.

Red Barber, baseball's top broadcaster, will be on the receiving end of Ellery Queen's fast curves when the famed "gold-head" is guest detective for the "Adventures of the Nine-Mile Clue" at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Southern born and educated,

Barber is Brooklyn's favorite son for his vivid eye-witness accounts of the Dodger ball games.

It's a photo finish with murder when "Jerry Plays a Long Shot" this week's fast-moving chapter in "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North" heard at 7 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

The setting is a harmless day at the races and Pam is day-dreaming of a mink coat and diamonds the afternoon's winnings will bring. Her visions are rudely shattered when a mysterious grandstand shot topples one of the jockeys from his mount.
