

Spike Jones' Band To Visit Bing Crosby on Thursday

Spike Jones and the City Slickers and songstress Dorothy Claire will be guests of Bing Crosby and Eddy Duchin when "The Groaner" ties up the last of his Music Hall shows at 8 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Now that the war is over Spike can get to work on his post-war plans. He is gathering additional "metal" musical instruments which include washboards, auto radiators, thimbles and others which he will use in making his "Musical Depreciation Album." It will contain Schubert's "Refinished Symphony," and a series of "Songs You'd Like to Forget."

Film Star Jackie Cooper will be heard as a young man with two great fears in "The Rope and the Clock," on "Suspense" at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS. He is terrified of closed-in places and of neckties. . . . and as the story unfolds, his reason for his fears becomes apparent.

Harpo, the uncommunicative Marx brother, will be the guest of George Burns and Gracie Allen broadcast at 7 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Harpo and his harp make their appearance at the Burns household at Gracie's request as she has decided to spend more time with her newspaper column and recognizes the need for an assistant reporter.

Completely recovered from her recent throat ailment, Dinah welcomes suave but sinister Peter Lorre as her guest on "Dinah Shore's Open House" at 7:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Dinah plans several songs with her newly-recovered voice but she says autographs are out. During her voice-rest, she did all her talking with a pencil and pad.
