

ica Brought to Radio Sunday Show Broadcast

the melting pot, will be glorified in song and prose on the "Stars" show starring Raymond Massey at 1 p. m. Sunday

William, Metropolitan Opera tenor, will sing a number of songs. Massey will take the role of "Buffalo Bill" Cody, hero of the West, in a humorous incident of his life.

"Gildersleeve" meets Gilda's affections with results in the comedy "Gildersleeve" at 5:30 p. m. Sunday. The competitor is a newspaperman, and Gildy's opposition prove the power of the press.

Baby Snooks' discovery that all that glitters is not gold gives Daddy the jitters on "The Baby Snooks Show" at 5:30 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

NO GUIDE

(Standard Time)
SUNDAY, MAY 12

A Dairy Farmer—nbc
Platform, a Forum—cbs Songs and His Songs—abc at for 15 Mins.—mbs United, a Forum—nbc
Weekly Comment—abc Broadcast—mbs—basic Chicago Roundtable—nbc
on's Commentation—cbs
Serenade; News—abc
Noon Song Time—mbs
row's Commentary—cbs concert with Barlow—nbc entire and Guests—cbs Peace Army Show—abc
Along the Trails—mbs Charles Thomas Song—nbc
ar Time Dramas—cbs era via the Radio—abc ham in Comment—mbs Thompson Talk—mbs
of Music, Max Hill—abc Symphony Orchestra—cbs and Commentary—abc
of Music in Variety—mbs en Drake Program—abc n's Family, Drama—nbc Hollywood Plays—abc
ly Song Program—mbs
Thompson in Song—abc Forum & Guests—nbc
perimental Shows—cbs
Missing Heirs—abc
Hobby, Mystery—mbs
Classics Matinee—nbc
Concert & Guests—cbs
Voice Choir—abc

The Terrible Tot goes on a treasure hunt and trips over buried loot. When it looks as if the whole Higgins clan will be moving to Easy Street, Daddy feels free to tell his boss off—to his sorrow, naturally.

Sydney Greenstreet, the movie's famous fat man, will be the sinister figure in Allen's Alley when he is guest of Fred Allen at 7:30 p. m. Sunday over NBC.

Greenstreet is on vacation from Hollywood for five weeks in the east. The trip to New York is the first for the former Broadway stage star since his arrival in Hollywood more than four years ago.

Edward Everett Horton, Charlie McCarthy's fuss-budget friend, will be guest with him at 7 p. m. Sunday over NBC.

After Horton finishes work on his latest movie, "Down to Earth," he'll go east to star in a summer airshow. At the mike Horton is as much at home as on a movie set. An old friend of Charlie's, he has been guest on almost every comedy program.