Ellery Queen will have the assistance of Vernon Pope, editor of Pageant magazine, as armchair detective for "The Adventures of the Crime in Darkness" at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

The Queen drama has a mental puzzler and murder mystery. Can a man see with his mind? Can telepathy take the place of eyes? That's a question the "maestro of crime" must answer before he can pierce the cloud that surrounds Claude Trome, a writer who claims extraordinary powers of extra-sensory perception.

Sweet '76 is the original David Rose composition which the conductor-writer and his orchestra will introduce in its premiere radio performance on "Holiday for Music" at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

This newest of Rose's novelty tunes is a sweet version of "The Girl I Left Behind Me" the melody which inspired the "Spirit of '76," famous painting of the standard bearer, drummer and fife player of the American Revolution.

Always on the lookout for new scholars with unusual musical talents, Kay Kyser will introduce his latest protege, 10-year-old Vaughn Pershing of Limon, Colo., to the student body of his "College of Musical Knowledge" at 9 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.
